1.0 MANDATE OF THE COLLEGE

The College's Registration Committee uses this Application Form and the materials to be provided with it to make decisions in granting registration, refusing registration, or making registration subject to limitations or conditions. When you complete and submit this document, the College will rely on the information you provide to decide on your application for registration. If you become registered, this document will form part of your permanent record at the College.

2.0 GENERAL INFORMATION

Please ensure you have the application package that corresponds to the registration category for which you are applying and that you are applying for the appropriate registration category (see document entitled "Registration Requirements Booklet" Section 2.1). It will be helpful to review the Registration Requirements document before filling out this Application Form. The College's rights in collecting, using and disclosing information; and its duty to maintain confidentiality are outlined in Section 3.2 of the "Registration Requirements" booklet.

Filling out this application form: Please read this entire Application Form before attempting to complete it. Follow all instructions and complete this document carefully and accurately. This document consists of individually numbered questions (e.g., "Question 10" or "Q.10") divided into topical sections ("Sections") corresponding to sections in the "Registration Requirements" booklet.

Supervision plan: Applicants providing psychological services in BC must be supervised by a registrant of the College. Applicants must submit a supervision plan as part of the application. This plan will be reviewed as part of the application process. The plan must designate an applicant-selected supervisor who has agreed to provide the required supervision and proposed arrangements (see Registration Requirements booklet Section 2.5.2).

Submitting documentation: This Application Form includes an Enclosure Checklist. Please attach all required documents and return the completed Application Form, with attachments, to the College at the following address:

The Registrar
College of Psychologists of British Columbia
404-1755 West Broadway
Vancouver, British Columbia
Canada V6J 4S5

There are required documents to be completed by third parties which must be submitted directly to the College. The College must receive all required documents, including all required professional and academic records and references, before this application will be reviewed. Applicants are solely responsible for ensuring all application documents are delivered to the College.

Delivery: Applicants are encouraged to submit all application documents by registered mail or by courier. The College accepts no responsibility for delays in its receipt of application materials.

Deadline for completion: Subject to any extensions granted by the College (see Registration Requirements Booklet Section 2.7), applicants have 24 months from the Date of Application to complete all necessary steps for registration (the "Deadline"), after which the application will automatically expire.

Documents received by the College for which no application is on file will be kept for one year.

The status of your application: Applicants will be notified if application documents are insufficient or if any further information is required (see Registration Requirements Booklet Section 2.9).

C. Additional Supervised Training Requirements for applicants without a doctoral degree (eg. Masters).

See the corresponding registration requirements booklet section [see Section 3.3.2.C] and provide additional information regarding your additional supervised training.

3.3.3 Assessment of Competencies, Knowledge and Areas of Practice

3.3.3.1 Assessment of Core Competencies and Foundational Knowledge

See the corresponding Booklet Section.(Section 3.3.3)

3.3.3.2 Declaration of Area of Practice

The criteria for declaring an area of practice are the same as the criteria for changing an area of practice once registered: a declaration of competence in an area of practice is a declaration by the applicant that he or she has the appropriate training, education and experience (i.e., the tripartite requirement) in that area of psychology to be able to offer the wide range of activities and services within that area.

23. By checking off one of the boxes below, you are self-declaring your area of practice in psychology. Please refer to sections 3.3.3.1, 3.3.3.2, and 3.3.3.3, and Appendix E in the Registration Requirements Booklet.

- A. Clinical Psychology
- B. Counselling Psychology
- C. Forensic/Correctional Psychology
- D. Health Psychology
- E. Industrial/Organizational Psychology
- F. Neuropsychology
- G. Rehabilitation Psychology
- H. School Psychology

3.3.3.2.C Declaration of Area of Practice

24. Identify below by which method your declaration of area of practice is supported:

- Program completed is clearly identified on the transcript of the highest degree (e.g., Clinical Psychology).
- A letter has been requested from my training director to be sent directly to the College attesting that a specific program was completed (e.g., Clinical Psychology).

If neither of these apply, applicants must complete Section 24A which follows.

AS THIS FORM IS FORWARDED TO REFEREES, PLEASE WRITE YOUR NAME LEGIBLY IN THIS BLANK _____.

25. Please indicate your activities and services in your declared area of practice by ticking off the relevant sections in the table below.

N.B. Those applicants who identify that Clinical Psychology is their area of practice are expected to demonstrate competence in scoring, interpreting, and reporting on psychometric tests; and in formulating and communicating a diagnosis. A copy of this grid will also be forwarded to the referees that you indicate will be providing a reference on your behalf.
